location for the conversation between Peter and Jesus recorded in Matthew 16. Following lunch, we turn our attention to the ministry of our Lord described in the Gospels with visits to the hometown of Jesus during his ministry - Capernaum - and Magdala, a thriving community at the time of our Lord where a recent archeological discovery revealed a First Century synagogue, likely visited by Jesus. We remember the "Greatest Sermon ever Preached" with a visit to the Mount of Beatitudes before we return to our hotel for dinner and overnight.
